

Outstanding Volunteer Award

Robert Gros, PhD

Robarts Research Institute
London, Ontario

Dr. Robert Gros is the recipient of the 2019 Hypertension Canada Outstanding Volunteer Award. Volunteers are the lifeblood of our organization. Generous with their time and talents they, bring light and life to our mission and vision. We are pleased to award Dr. Gros this new annual award in recognition of his exemplary and generous dedication of time, passion, and skills to Hypertension Canada's annual scientific events, enabling the development of new careers in hypertension research, and expanding member engagement and enriching value to its research community. We celebrate Dr. Gros as a longstanding member with many important roles;

1994 to present	Member Abstract reviewer, annual scientific meeting
2006 to 2010	Member, organizing committee, annual scientific meetings
2011	Co-Chair, inaugural Canadian Hypertension Congress Planning Committee
2012 to present	Co-Chair, annual Canadian Hypertension Congress Planning Committee
2017	Co-Chair, inaugural Hypertension Canada Young Investigator Forum
2018	Advisor, Canadian Hypertension Congress Redesign Task Force Contributor, Hypertension Canada Research Trainee Strategy
2019	Co-Chair, annual Canadian Hypertension Congress and Young Investigator Forum

Dr. Gros is known and respected for his accessibility and willingness to help, guide, and ensure success. His enthusiasm and sense of urgency to accomplish goals provides motivation to groups. He is recognized for making others feel valued, and a vibrant part of the community he serves. Dr. Gros you exemplify "outstanding volunteer".