

2021 Jacques de Champlain New Investigator Award

Dr. Kara Nerenberg, MD, MSc
University of Calgary
Calgary, Alberta

The Jacques de Champlain New Investigator Award recognizes excellence in the field of hypertension or blood pressure research by a new investigator, who has not exceeded a time period of 12 years from the first appointment as an independent investigator. The nominee must have made significant contributions to the advancement and extension of knowledge in basic, clinical, health services or population-based research specifically relating to hypertension or blood pressure.

Dr. Kara Nerenberg was awarded the prestigious 2021 Jacques de Champlain New Investigator Award. Dr. Nerenberg is an Associate Professor and Clinician-Scientist at the University of Calgary. Dr. Nerenberg's clinical and research interests focus on the management of hypertension during pregnancy and interventions to prevent cardiovascular diseases in women after the hypertensive disorders of pregnancy.